COMPETENT PERSONS

Competent Persons Scheme:
Replacement
Windows and Doors

Q

As an installer of replacement doors and windows, for every installation you undertake, you must notify Local Authority Building Control (LABC) that the work complies with the relevant parts of the Building Regulations (parts A to M). However, this can be both costly and time consuming.

So how can you demonstrate compliance with Building Regulations and notify LABC both quickly and cost effectively?

A

By being a member of the BM TRADA Competent Persons Scheme for Replacement Windows and Doors.

What the Competent Persons Scheme aims to achieve:

The BM TRADA Certification Competent Persons Scheme for Replacement Windows and Doors aims to achieve the following:

- Provide a means for installers and organisations to declare compliance for each installation
- Provides a simple and cost effective mechanism to notify all installations to Local Authority Building Control
- Demonstrate compliance with the Building Regulations to end users by providing certificates of compliance for installations
- Provide peace of mind that the organisation or installer is suitably qualified and that their work is continually checked by an independent body
- Raise the on-going standard of replacement window and doorset installations
